

News and Notes

Number 25 March 25, 2011

Past Editions of News & Notes – Visit the District website

★ Hamilton's Hawk Walk on Saturday!

Hamilton Elementary will host the "Hawk Walk" - a free fitness activity open to Port Angeles families and community members - on Saturday, March 26 from 9:00 a.m. until 12:00 noon. More information

★ Klallam Earth Day – Help Clean Up the Beaches!

Anyone interested in participating in the local Earth Day beach cleanup on April 23? Please visit www.Klallamearthday.com for more details about the event. You can sign up either as an individual or team.

★ Reminder From Barb Phillips - The upcoming District inventory scan will be held during spring break. If possible, please leave items out and available for scanning. If you have items that will not be available, such as a laptop, camera, etc. please notify your building's office staff what you have and the tag number. Schedule

★ Save the Date!

The Elwha Science Education Project is offering its annual professional development training on April 9 from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Olympic Park Institute. The theme of the training is "Supporting Native Students in Your Classroom." Cost-Free! Space is limited, so please email your RSVP to Tia Skerbeck, Elwha Science Education Coordinator, tskerbeck@naturebridge.org, or call 928.3720 ext. 11. For teachers seeking clock hours: 6 clock hours will be available, free of charge.

★ If you Haven't Yet... and Would Like Your Students to Participate in the Juan de Fuca Art Show

The Port Angeles Arts Council, Juan De Fuca Art Festival and the Port Angeles Downtown Association are combining efforts and talent to sponsor the First Annual Show of Visual and Performance Art – Young at Art - for K-8th grade students May 20 through 30. Contact Cathy Haight by email at cathyjo@davidghaight.com, or phone 360.477.4690, to let her know of your students' participation.

★ Invitation Extended - Audition for Juan de Fuca Festival Talent Show – Pass it on!

The Juan de Fuca Festival is sponsoring a regional talent show on April 30 at the PAHS Auditorium. Auditions will be held on April 23 and 24 at the Peninsula College Pirate Union Building from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Each performer - solo or group - should prepare a five minute program. For more information or to reserve an audition spot, contact Dan Mcguire by phone at 360.457.5411 or email at danmaguire@jffa.org.

★ Beyond the Call of Duty

★ JapanAid Fundraiser – Still Time to Donate!

With a lofty goal of $5,000 and the motto - "If we all give a little, it'll help a lot" - students and staff at Roosevelt Elementary and Stevens Middle Schools are raising funds for JapanAid, a local fund initiated to assist the American Red Cross in relief efforts after the recent earthquake and tsunami in Japan. News has it that PAHS is joining the effort too! Thank you, all! For more information about JapanAid and how to make a donation, call Roosevelt Elementary at 452.8973. Media Release

★ Congratulations to Stevens History Competitors!
 Fifty-three students from Stevens Middle School competed Monday, March 21 at the Olympic Regional History Day held at Olympic College in Bremerton. Five are moving on to the State competition -Kody Kuch, Tanner Gochnour, Cade Levine and Janson Peterson have qualified for their group exhibit on Pearl Harbor, and Anton Kossler has qualified for his individual documentary on The Treaty of Versailles. Media Release

★ PAHS senior Corbin Brabant Chosen as Washington State FBLA March Member of the Month

As a winner of this honor, Brabant will receive a check for fifty dollars from the State FBLA office, and will now be considered for the State Member of the Year award.

★ Congrats to PAHS science teachers who made presentations at the WSTA (Washington Science Teachers Association) Conference, individually and as a team - Jennifer Duncan-Taylor, John Gallagher and John Henry! Let's hear more about your Visions of the Universe!

★ Congrats to PAHS North Olympic Solo and Ensemble Festival winners! PAHS Reigned! Going to State!

★ Photos from the Week – JapanAid Fundraising at Roosevelt and Stevens – NOSPC Open House!

★ Weekly Meeting Schedule, Central Services Building

Monday, March 28	Spring Administrative Institute, 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
Tuesday, March 29	Language Arts Committee, 3:30-5:00 p.m.
Wednesday, March 30	Social Studies Committee, 3:30-5:00 p.m.