

Name:

Advisor:

1. Essential Question

- Accepted
- Needs revision: see comments and checks below

A long question with many parts

- Distill into one question...
- Consider a more narrow focus
- Don't just form a compound sentence

Answerable in 1 sitting ... (quick internet fix)

- Consider a fresh angle
- Try turning it into a "how" question
- Consider current controversies
- Consider future projections (technology)
-

What skills and abilities ...

- It's likely that if you are drawn to a particular job field you already have a good start on the skills and abilities needed so
- Consider implications for the future (technology, etc.)
- Consider how the career might contribute to _____.
-

2. Plan of Action

- Accepted
- Needs revision: see comments and checks below

Plan is linked to and supports the Essential Question

- Accepted
- See suggestions:

Plan is realistic and detailed enough to show that the student has an understanding of the steps needed to complete the project.

- Accepted
- See suggestions:

Plan of action is clear.

- Accepted
- See suggestions

3. Application of the Project: The proposed application project is an authentic demonstration or illustration of the knowledge, skill or proficiency that the student will gain.

- Accepted
- See suggestions:

4. State Learning Goal 3: Student's response is both thorough and specific in describing the types of analytical, logical, and/or creative thinking processes they will use in completing the project.

- Accepted
- See suggestions:

5. State Learning Goal 4: Student's response is both thorough and specific in describing how completing this project might affect their future in terms of education and/or employment opportunities.

- Accepted
- See suggestions:

6. Anticipated Challenges: Student has specifically outlined the challenges that they anticipate in the course of completing the project and what strategies they plan to use to overcome those challenges.

- Accepted
- See suggestions: